Bill Williams

Seen every weeknight for 23 years on WBIR-TV's top rated newscasts, this retired co-anchor of Action 10 News remains one of the most respected broadcast journalists in East Tennessee. Awarded for his superb handling of the news and his compassion in dealing with human issues, Bill continues to be seen on Channel 10 broadcasting one of his favorite projects, "Monday's Child," an adoption program he originated in 1980. More than 600 of the special needs children introduced on the program have found permanent homes and loving families. Bill continues his work in the community, and he and his wife, Wanda, are enjoying time with their grandchildren.

Mark Lewis

"There is an anointing on Mark Lewis for worship. He doesn't play for you. He plays to Him and you just get to listen." These are the words of God Chasers author, Tommy Tenney, and they depict Lewis' gift perfectly. Mark has traveled full-time with Tenney, played and/or recorded with world renowned worship leaders Lindell Cooley, Karen Wheaton and Andre Couch—to name a few. He lives in Pigeon Forge with his wife and daughter and travels the world leading others into God's presence.

Lee Lance and Rickey Akens

Lee is a Respiratory Therapist at Methodist Medical Center on union leave as an organizer for the Service Employees International Union, Local 205. In her spare time, she is a soprano with the Appalachian Harmonizers. Rickey is the Labor Relations Program Manager at MMC and a former pianist with the McKameys.

POEM BY MOTHER TERESA

*People are often unreasonable, illogical and self-centered;
Forgive them anyway.*

*If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish,
ulterior motives;
Be kind anyway.*

*If you're successful, you will win some false
friends and some true enemies;
Succeed anyway.*

*If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you;
Be honest and frank anyway.*

*What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight;
Build anyway.*

*If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous;
Be happy anyway.*

*The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow;
Do good anyway.*

*Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough;
Give the world the best you've got anyway.*

*You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God;
It was never between you and them anyway.*

- Mother Teresa

This poem was written by Mother Teresa and is engraved on the wall of her Home for Children in Calcutta.
